Somerset, KY- TOUR Southern and Eastern Kentucky and representatives from the Heartland Waterways Corridor made a special presentation to General Paul Smith in memory of the late Phyllis Smith for the many contributions she made to tourism in Cumberland County, the region and the state. The presentation was made at a gazebo funded by TOUR Southern and Eastern Kentucky, in downtown Burkesville. The plaque will be placed inside the gazebo once the gazebo project is complete.

There have been over 400 projects implemented with over two million dollars allocated to the 46-county region of TOUR SEKY. These projects could not be possible without the help and vision from Congressman Hal Rogers.
